

Terms of Reference

Title: Intern

Location: Hanoi

Duration: 3 months, full time, starting February 1, 2023

Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung Vietnam is looking for a Vietnamese Intern to support our work on political, economic and social issues in Vietnam.

About Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung in Vietnam

The Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) is an independent, private and non-profit organisation headquartered in Germany. Promoting the principles of social democracy, the rule of law, political participation, sustainable development, social justice and international partnership are the goals and guidelines of our international work.

The FES Vietnam office was established in 1990 in Hanoi. The close and long-standing cooperation with local partners forms the backbone of FES' work in Vietnam. The Vietnamese partner organisations of FES Vietnam are central actors in the fields of politics, economic development, and political education.

Applicants should fulfil the following requirements:

- Be in their advanced study period, i.e. have at least completed a BA degree,
- be fluent in English, and possess excellent writing skills,

The following experiences/ skills are an asset:

- Experiences in international cooperation/ development cooperation,
- strong knowledge about and/ or work experience with trade unions, political parties and/ or in the field of sustainable development,
- social engagement.

We ask all applicants to submit all of the following information:

1. CV
2. Letter of motivation

Please submit your application in English stating "Intern" as email title to mail@fes-vietnam.org, by 05.01.2023

Short-listed candidates will be contacted within 1 week after the deadline.